Clare was called to the Bar in 2006 and qualified as a Solicitor in 2010. Clare has over seven years of litigation experience attending hearings mainly on the North and North Eastern Circuit.

Clare has notable knowledge and experience of defended mortgage possession proceedings having previously worked at a national law firm in its Banking Litigation team. From previous work in a regional firm, Clare also has experience of contested and uncontested probate matters dealing with estate administration, creditors' grants, capacity issues, and the Court of Protection.

Clare now brings her considerable advocacy experience to LPC Law as a Solicitor. She is instructed on matters in the High Court and County Courts throughout England & Wales by some of the UK's largest solicitor firms and financial institutions.

Clare's practice involves a broad range of hearings, including – but not limited to:

- Civil and Commercial
- Property
- Consumer Credit
- Insolvency
- Personal Injury
