Pete joined LPC Law as an Advocate in 2006 and by the time he became an Advocacy Manager at the firm in 2010; Pete had attended over 2500 hearings across London, the Southwest and the Midlands.

As an Advocacy Manager Pete is responsible for managing 40 advocates on the South-Western Circuit.

Until recently, Pete worked in our litigation department, specialising in civil litigation and landlord and tenant claims, where the experience he gained as an advocate was invaluable.

Pete also provides advices on quantum for personal injuries cases.

Pete enjoys new challenges and particularly enjoys taking on unusual and procedurally difficult cases which require creative thinking in order to obtain the best possible result for the client.

Pete's practice encompasses a wide range of hearing types – including but not limited to:

- Applications to suspend warrants
- Appeals
- Directions hearing
- Case Management Conferences
- Fast Track Trials
