

Rebecca Fowler (Solicitor)

Midlands Circuit

Rebecca is a solicitor specialising in Civil Litigation. In addition to taking instruction through LPC since 2010; Rebecca has worked for the past year in a firm specialising in contentious and non - contentious insolvency matters.

Rebecca regularly appears on the midlands circuit and frequently attends on a wide range of contentious civil proceedings including but not limited to:

- ▮ Infant settlements
- ▮ Disposal hearings
- ▮ Bankruptcy hearings
- ▮ Winding up petitions
- ▮ Appellate matters
- ▮ Mortgage possession applications
- ▮ Residential landlord and tenant applications
- ▮ TOLATA applications
- ▮ Interim applications

Rebecca is a mentor for law students at Coventry University and gives seminars on Advocacy and Civil Procedure.

Assessed, inducted and first instruction received from LPC Law

July 2010

Qualifications

Bar Vocational Course (2009)
Law LLB (2004)
A Levels (2000)

Membership

The Law Society – Admissions to the roll (2013)
Middle Temple (Call – 2009)

Areas of Expertise

Civil Litigation
Insolvency
Property
Personal Injury