

Paul Luukas

(Solicitor-Advocate)

South Eastern Circuit

Paul was called to the Bar in 2007 and was instructed as an advocate in the Northern Circuit for four years, conducting in the region of 3,000 hearings.

Paul qualified as a Solicitor in November 2013 and a Solicitor-Advocate (Higher Courts Civil Proceedings) in February 2014.

Outside of law, Paul is a keen golfer and a loyal Jack Bauer fan. He has recently been induced into becoming a member of LPC Law's running club.

- Paul's practice encompasses a wide range of hearing types – including but not limited to:
 - Representing lenders in secured and unsecured recovery actions.
 - Advising and representing clients in relation to personal injury litigation.
 - Representing commercial and residential landlords.
 - Representing clients at interlocutory hearings and in small claims trials relating road traffic accidents and contractual disputes.
 - Appearing before Circuit Judges on appeal matters.
 - Receiving petitioning creditor and trustee instruction in insolvency matters.
