

Peter Causton

(Solicitor-Advocate)

Northern & Midlands Circuit

Peter trained a Barrister and cross qualified as a Solicitor. Peter has higher rights of audience and has also qualified as a Mediator. He worked as a Solicitor specialising in Professional Indemnity Law from 1996- 2017 and sits as a Deputy District Judge (Civil).

-  County Court: Applications and Small Claims.
-  Possession Hearings
-  Fast Track Trials
-  Injunctions
-  Infant Approvals

Assessed, inducted and first instruction received from LPC Law

16th November 2017

Qualifications

Barrister at Law, ICSL, BVC (1995)
Common Professional Examination (1994)
Commendation
Cambridge University (1992)
MA 2.1

Professional Achievements

Shortlisted for Personal Injury Awards
Mediation achiever of the year
Author of 'A Practical Guide to ADR in Personal Injury Claims'

Membership

Bar Council Member
Law Society Member
Board Member of The Civil Mediation Council

Areas of Expertise

Professional Negligence
Litigation