

Benjamin Rose

(Solicitor)

North Eastern Circuit

Ben is solicitor admitted in 2009, he has a wealth of experience, ranging from high street practice to large scale multinationals. Ben trained in the North Eastern circuit and has worked as Head of Civil Litigation for a large full service firm on both banks of the Humber before becoming an in house Litigation Solicitor for Thomas Cook UK & Ireland defending claims against all parts of the business and airline. Ben has most recently been working for a large insurance practice in various roles.

He has regularly appeared in tribunals, courts and chambers hearings acting for individuals, businesses and corporate clients.

Ben maintains an interest in travel injury and illness claims after his time with Thomas Cook. Ben is also a trusted advisor to charitable organisations including alumni groups and uniformed organisations.

-  Case Management Conferences
-  Infant Approval Hearings
-  Interim Hearings (Directions & Listings)
-  Applications for Summary Judgement and Relief from Sanction
-  Final Hearings

Assessed, inducted and first instruction received from LPC Law

18th October 2017

Qualifications

LPC, College of Law [York] (2006)
LLB (Hons) [Hull] (2004)

Publications/Professional Achievements

Honorary Solicitors- Sea Cadet Corps (Hull Unit)

Membership of Professional / Accredited Organisations

Travel & Tourism Lawyers Association
Professional Negligence Lawyers Association
Association of Personal Injury Lawyers
Law Society Commerce & Industry Group
Human Rights Lawyers Association
Charity Law Association
Health & Safety Lawyers Association

Areas of Expertise

Negligence
Injury
Travel