

Iain Shipley

(Solicitor)

South Eastern Circuit

Iain is a dual qualified English solicitor and South African attorney. He completed his training contract in South Africa in 2014 at the largest commercial firm in Africa, before clerking at the South African Supreme Court of Appeal. Iain qualified as an English solicitor in 2017 and is currently specialising in civil litigation, and completing a PGCert in International Dispute Resolution part-time through the University of London International Programmes.

- ▮ Commercial Litigation
- ▮ Landlord & Tenant
- ▮ Mortgage Possessions

Assessed, inducted and first instruction received from LPC Law

5th January 2018

Qualifications

Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales (2017)
Attorney of the High Court of South Africa (2014)
LLB, University of Cape Town (2010)
BCom Economics and Law, University of Cape Town (2008)

Publications/Professional Achievements

I M Shipley, 'Trust Assets and the Dissolution of a Marriage: A Practical Look at Invalid Trusts, Sham Trusts, and Piercing the Veneers of Trusts/ Going Behind the Trust Form', 2016 (3) South African Journal of Mercantile Law 508