

Robert Machell

(Counsel)

South Eastern Circuit

Robert was called to the bar in 2016 and completed pupillage specialising in complex commercial disputes in 2017. He is developing a broad civil practice, with regular court advocacy building on his extensive paper-based experience during pupillage. He has experience of advocacy in various courts and tribunals including the County Court, employment and benefits tribunals, as well as participating in hearings in Germany, France and the Netherlands.

Prior to being called the bar, Robert spent over twenty years working in financial services, establishing and successfully growing a LLP and accumulating considerable commercial experience. He is well-placed to advise and represent banks and commercial litigants.

Robert has been instructed in commercial disputes, personal insolvency matters and landlord and tenant disputes. He has represented clients in commercial and residential possession proceedings.

Robert's practice encompasses a wide range of hearing types – including but not limited to:

- Fast Track Trials
- Bankruptcy Petitions
- Small Claims Trials
- Interim Applications
- Strike Outs & Relief From Sanctions
- Disposal Hearings
- Applications Under The Companies Act & Insolvency Act
- Applications For Order Of Sales & Committals

- Winding Up Petitions
- Commercial & Residential Possessions
- Stage 3 Hearings

Assessed, inducted and first instruction received from LPC Law

8th June 2018

Qualifications

2015 – 2016 – Bar Professional Training Course, City Law School (Outstanding, ranked 3rd on course)

2014 – 2015 – Graduate Diploma in Law, University of Law (Distinction)

Areas of Expertise

Chancery
Commercial & Contractual Disputes
General Civil Litigation
Insolvency
Property, Landlord & Tenant Disputes
Shipping