

Andrew Gibbs-Ripley

Solicitor

South-Western Circuit

Andrew is a Solicitor who practices on the South-Western Circuit.

Andrew has attended over 1700 hearings for LPC Law in a wide variety of civil litigation hearings.

Since being admitted as a Solicitor in 2015, Andrew's practice includes:

▣ Personal Injury

Andrew regularly attended fast and multi-track trials in RTA and Holiday sickness claims. Andrew also drafts written advices on quantum.

▣ Mortgage Possession & Applications

Andrew has a great deal of experience attending mortgage hearings on behalf of lenders, including defended matters and appeals.

▣ Insolvency

Building on experience of drafting administrative matters and applications under the Companies Act 2006 when in private practice, Andrew now regularly attends a wide range of insolvency matters, including bankruptcy and Winding-Up proceedings.

Assessed, inducted and first instructed by LPC Law

May 2012

Qualifications

Admitted as a Solicitor (2015)
Exeter University LLPB (Hons) (2010)

Areas of Expertise

Civil Litigation
Landlord & Tenant
Mortgages
Personal Injury
Small Claims